

This gift is given in memory of Steve Damm,

who would have turned 46 on Nov. 4, 2014.

His life was cut short by brain cancer, but his legacy continues.

Steve loved art and running, the beach and baseball,
his family and friends, goofiness and laughter.

He loved kindness, and he loved life.

I'm happy to share some of that life with you!

checkonsteve.blogspot.com